THIS 'N THAT AROUND THE PLANT

How emphatic can one get? Forrest Hubbard goes "all out" when applying the emergency brake on his trusty Studebaker; in fact, he even pulls the handle so that it falls on the floor.

During the recent big snows it was overheard that Nancy Lee could hardly resist the childhood whim to make angels in the snow--and we are told she would have done it but she was afraid it would make the Spirit as headlines.

A detailed report was expected from Lucile Wikoff on "What to do While Driving if Suddenly you see a Driverless Delivery Truck Approaching You", but a later date for her comments can be arranged.

Landlady: "A professor formerly occupied this room, sir. He invented an explosive."

New Roomer: "I presume those spots on the ceiling are the explosive."

Landlady: "No, they're the professor."

Now that Christmas is past we won't be so busy. Up until now I have been working in the evenings after chow. There's only one thing wrong. No overtime. RESEARCH

BETTY HUGHES REPORTS RESEARCH DOINGS

DR. GLENN A. BREWER, JR., of Woodridge, Conn. was welcomed to Microbi December 29th. He is a biochemist. Dr. Brewer received his B.S. at Hobart College, Geneva, N.Y., his M.S. and PhD at University of Wisconsin. The newcomers are living at 2520 Dillman. Recently Dr. Brewer's mother visited Terre Haute. She liked the town and the people she met. We're sure everyone liked her in return. Back in Connecticut the name Brewer is quite uncommon. Here we have plenty of them...

TOM LESLIE took his mother to the train after she had spent the holidays here. He went into the train to see that she was comfortably seated. The train began rolling. TOM took a bus home from Vincennes, Indiana....

A warning is issued to all farmers having cattle with horns. If the horns are conspicuous for their absence, search the CAMPBELL-OLINGER lab. Ever since MYRTLE MITCHELL showed them a powder horn belonging to her husband's grandfather and used in the gold rush days, those boys have been contriving to each be A Man With A Horn...

WALTER GERARD'S tie - a Christmas deal - pictured EVELYN, 50,000 Treasure Chest West ...FRED ARZBERGER received some very artistic Christmas cards from Japanese friends which he met while he and Mrs. ARZBERGER were in Japan....The Research Stenos' tree was a masterpiece. KATIE UPMAN, receptionist, also placed a tree in the reception room to brighten up the holiday season...CHEF, BILL JOHNSON, won further culinary laurels with his baked ham, baked beans, potato salad, etc., which he prepared for the Christmas lunch...CHARLES HINZ spent the holidays in Chicago and New York.

The contents of the flower boxes in front of Research Center were confiscated by the Green Thumbers and are flourishing quite well this winter...The lab girls found some delicious cooking coming from the kitchens of BARBARA POUND'S mother and RUTH CLOUGH (wife of ART)...HERBIE HURST enjoyed a winter vacation...PAT ALLEN had his Time Off Christmas week... WALT and ANN BACHMAN came for a short visit to the Research Center January 2nd. The kids rec'd a lively Christmas gift - their dog, DUKE...BETTY HUGHES and her mother drove to Martinsville, Illinois for a visit with relatives on New Year's Day

RESEARCH ENGINEERS STATE THAT: The Engineering Department was depleted in number when HAYES, SCHMITZ and EGLY were absent. Now the three have returned in body, if not in spirit...ED CHEN has truly been captured by the Hi-Fi bug. All at once living in Terre Haute has become more expensive. Ed even makes trips to Chicago to buy records for certain Spirit editors. The records are such a good buy that background-music-loving individuals have similarly appointed him their purchasing agent... OLIVER HAYES has decided that outside work doesn't pay. After a long night of antenna-installing, an exhausted sleep, plus the following morning speeding to work. (The cop only charged him five bucks for the speeding ticket.)...AL MILLER, (Engr) and BERNIE LUBIN wandered over to Rose Poly to talk about "Professional Problems of the Young Chemical Engineer." ...BOB WALTERS was really lucky to come to Indiana from Texas. Now he can visit his mother-in-law practically all the time. Bob says that it get colder in Texas - and hotter too - than it does here in Indiana... "Calculatin' Clyde" who reports for Research Engineers notices that all the fellows except bachelor ED CHEN take homework home at 5. He wonders if their wives aren't speaking to them. "Grandpa" HAYES wonders whether he will look as boyish as half-century RIDDICK when he gets there, (Quite a few years yet)

LEON ROYER transferred to the Nutritional Research Farms, January 11th. LAWNIE WAGNER was another of those late '53 vacationers... LAWNIE'S son-in-law, CSCER, Pfc GEORGE TALLEY visited here during the holidays. He took his wife, former DORIS WAGNER, with him to Fort Sill, Oklahoma..

DR. LESTER M. WHITMORE, JR., of Salem Virginia joined the Microbi as Bioengineer, December 28th. He received his B.S. at Virginia Poly; his S.M. at Massachusetts Institute of Technology; his PhD at the University of Wisconsin. The WHITMORES live at 1528 South 6th Street...

CSC announces the signing of a long-term contract with National Petro-Chemicals Corporation, jointly owned by Panhandle Eastern Pipelines and National Distillers for a substantial portion of the total synthetic ethyl alcohol production of the new $50,000,000 plant recently completed at Tuscola, Illinois.

As a result of this arrangement, CSC, a pioneer in alcohol research and production confirms its basic position as an industrial alcohol manufacturer and supplier; offering maximum flexibility and protection to its customers under all market conditions through its supplies of both synthetic and fermentation ethyl alcohol. First deliveries under the new contract commenced January first.

PAUL HOCKENBEAMER , JANUARY 27th, 1954.

The people of the Terre Haute plant were shocked at the untimely death of PAUL O. HOCKENBEAMER, yesterday morning. He was a graduate of DePauw University, Masters from ISTC. He was in Quality Control. A wife and two small children survive. It should not be said that birthdays are ignored or that the years do not pile up or that NETTIE DONHAM forgets. Late one afternoon just before Christmas the Analytical Division group gathered in BILL JOHNSON'S lab where coffee and a birthday cake awaited the arrival of JOHN RIDDICK. Actually the cake should have had fifty candles but it took the surprised Tex four puffs to knock off twelve candles. NETTIE says it partially repaid the cake she got about a year back.

BETTY HUGHES reports that PROF. Toshinobu Asai of the Department of Agricultural Chemistry at the University of Tokyo, visited Research last week. FRED ARZBERGER greeted Professor Asai. He had met him in Japan two years before....MESSRS BACHMAN, HIDY and NEWT JOHNSON enjoyed the Butler-Rio Grande game at the Butler Field House, Indianapolis. The great star Bevo Francis scored 48 points!

FRITZ DANGA spoke before an appreciative men's group at the Maple Avenue Methodist Church last Tuesday evening.

DRAFTING DEPARTMENT NEWS IN THE DALE COTTOM MANNER

The Marines have landed in the Drafting Room - DON KEENEY and ALEX CHERVENKO - and everything is beginning to take a new look. New automobiles are making the headlines. Chervenko has a new Plymouth; DON "SPEEDWAY" KEENEY is driving an 110-miles-an-hour Mercury. (That is when the State police is not cruising around.)

ELI DIX has also added a Plymouth ot his luxury line. We hear that CHARLIE SCHILLING is shopping around for a new television. He gets something new every year. His '53 collection was enhanced by a new Buick. We want to welcome back MADLYN FURRER who is taking over the Ozalid printing machine since BETTY MORETZ has resigned to devote full time to homemaking...

RESEARCH ENGINEER DIRT BY NETTLED NED

BOB WALTERS has decided to come in out of the country. From renting a place south of town, he is now buying in town. JOHN RIDDICK is a very distrustful soul (and he claims to have good cause due to past performance). Since BERNIE LUBIN has been preparing the agenda for various meetings, JCEN is confining their conversations to politics, poetry, liquor, women and some phases (only) of theoretical analytical chemistry. He feels that BERNIE (1) doesn't know much about these subjects and (2) cannot quote him on the various agendas....

ED CHEN made a mistake. He went to Chicago to listen to the Hi Fi component parts at the Allied Radio Company. With each improvement the price jumped and only the best sounded good.. Do you want to hear Beethoven's Fifth as you've never heard it before? Listen in on Chen's new speaker. It's terrific....OLIVER HAYES now says that laboratory vacuum distillation is no problem at all. All you need are two throttling valves three electronic controllers and a tandem variac control. Strange thing is - it works..

BILL FOGEL, JR. A CHAMP!

ANNEX, ENGINEERS, OFFICE AND RASCALS TIED FOR FIRST PLACE IN MEN'S BOWLING LEAGUE

It's five games won, one lost in the second half of the Men's Bowling League. A quartet of topnotchers are holding first place - RASCALS, ANNEX, ENGINEERS AND OFFICE.

BILL FOGEL, JR., BOWLS 297 Game. (Here's what BOB JONES said about the big event)

"CSC almost had a lad go into the hall of bowling fame last Wednesday night as BILL FOGEL threw a 297 game. Yes, that's right - 297!!!!!! !

"Bill threw eleven strikes in a row. Then, wobbling like a new-born calf and sweating like a person having three hot toddies and wrapped in four blankets, Bill somehow managed to heave the ball in the general direction of the pins, which in my belief, a medal of strength should be issued. Bill realized he didn't have the ball coming up to the pocket when he let go of it, but there was no disappointment on his face when the three pins remained standing. When the people shouted, "Too Bad, Bill" all he said was "I'm glad it is over" and added "Sure I would have like to have the 300 but I am lucky to get 297. Gold belt buckles are given to those having 300, 299 and 298. Bill will receive an engraved sterling silver membership card called the "Eleven-In-A-Row Award.

"You will probably replay that last toss a million times, Bill, but when the chance comes around, you'll be accustomed to the tension and make it. "

Season high series: WILLIAM (297) FOGEL - 658

Season High over Aver. FRED PUGH - 142

HIGH SERIES: BILL FOGEL 658; ROYER 596, MCCALLUM 547, MORGAN 543, TEWELL 572, JONES 551

1000 games: NORWAY 1056, Penicillin 1016, Ribo 1066, Rascals 1072, South Plant 1019, Sixide 1007, Engineers 1016.

BILL EVANS said that the 297 is the highest game ever bowled in the CSC league since it started in 1934. That will probably be the highest in 2034.

NOR'WAY vs MAUMEE INDIANS, SUNDAY, JANUARY 31, 3:00 P.M.

Be sure to see this one. The Indians have only been defeated once this year in 26 games.

PLANT LEAGUE BASKETBALL TOURNEY OPENS SUNDAY, JANUARY 31

Yard vs Lab at 2:00 P.M.

WELDING and CUTTING FIRES ARE INCREASING

Fire losses which originated from welding and cutting operations reached an all-time high last year. The General Motors automatic transmission plant fire, the largest industrial fire on record with a property loss between 35 million and 37 million, was caused by sparks from a cutting torch.

Most of these fires were preventable and emphasize again the need for tightening plant regulation covering cutting and welding operations. Cutting and welding equipment is especially hazardous when used in an area containing combustible material. Sparks often get away and start fires out of sight of the operator. Cracks, pipe holes and other openings are known to have received hot sparks as far away as 25 feet.

It is important that the proposed work be thoroughly reviewed by a competent supervisor. He should carefully examine the location and specify suitable precautions or prohibit the work and insist upon other methods if conditions cannot be made safe. Under no conditions should work be permitted without a written permit. By following our CSC Safety Work Permit, the chance of a serious fire is greatly reduced.

LETTER TO THE SPIRIT

I would like for you to place an ad in the Spirit for me. My father works at the plant. He is PAUL BOWMAN. I am a rheumatic fever victim and I have been for over a year. I am trying to finish my high school by taking a correspondence course at the American School in Chicago. As you know, it takes money to go to school and it also takes money for doctor bills. Since I have been sick, I have been such a burden on Mother and Father and I feel that I ought to try to take some of that burden off them. I am now able to do typing and I would like for you to put in the Spirit that I would like some home typing to do. My price will be reasonable. My telephone number is H-0852.

I would appreciate it very much if you would attend to this. Oh yes, I am sixteen years old.
PEARLINA BOWMAN, 2615 South Third Street.

STAMPS FOR THE WOUNDED

In a recent Indianapolis Star, LOWELL NUSSBAUM writes that the volunteer service group who visits our wounded service men are making a new appeal to the public to contribute used stamps, both United States commemoratives and foreign, for use in veterans' hospitals.

The stamp hobby helps keep minds and hands occupied for those veterans who unhappily are destined to be hospitalized for as long as ten years or more. Stamps for the veterans may be forwarded to Mr. Henry K. Finne at Essex House, Indianapolis, or if you prefer, send them to Spirit office. When we receive a supply of them, they will be forwarded to Mr. Finne. PLEASE REMEMBER THIS REQUEST.

THANKS FROM THE BLIND

The Master Eye Foundation has thanked the employees of CSC repeatedly for their thoughtfulness in saving labels from cans of Perk Dog food. Well over 23,000 of these labels have been mailed to Chicago from our plant. Perk Dog Food Company gives one cent for each label turned in. This money is used in providing seeing-eye dogs FREE, to the blind, regardless of color, nationality or creed. KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK Send your labels to Spirit office.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY: Most people don't really object to a full day's work. They just don't do it. Anybody with a chip on his shoulder is probably standing still...The trouble with people who have the gift of gab is that they never wrap it up....

SOUTH PLANT NOTES

MAC MCCULLOUGH just loved getting out of bed at 2:30 A.M. to answer the telephone. It was a call from his son in the Air Force who is stationed at Anchorage, Alaska. It was 11 PM up there....GENE HARTLEY is now permanently 39 years old, same as JACK BENNY. He had a birthday last week.

When Dr. BOSWELL took off for his new job at Lincoln, Nebraska, the gang at the south plant packaging gave him a golf umbrella and a dozen golf balls. The presentation was made by MERTIE MONTGOMERY in the following poetic manner -

"We feel so bad, it makes us sad, to have you go away. But when you go, we'd like to know that you'll have time for play. In case you do, here's a gift or two, for fun, come rain or shine. But if you'd rather, you can trade it, Brother for a bottle of Scotch or Wine.

For Lincoln is dry - that's the reason why - (but, of course, you already know it.) But now I'll bet you can play when it's wet, so open your package and show it."

Dr. BOSWELL in expressing his thanks and appreciation for the gift also congratulated the entire group on their steadfast cooperation in the work for CSC and he asked their continued cooperation for a successful future for the Company and her employees.

We are very proud to have WILBUR KEKO succeed Dr. Boswell. We do hope that his association with the South Planters will be pleasant....JOYBELLE JEAN is wearing a special smile what with her husband home on a fourteen-day furlough....

The surprise snow last Wednesday morning was responsible for EDITH SOUTHWOOD landing in a ditch south of town. The twins, NELLA & NINA BRASHIER came along, saw what had happened and they too, swayed into the ditch. A friend helped the twins to get their car back on the highway so they brought EDITH in to work. At noon eleven fellows relinquished their lunch-hour to get the car out of the ditch. These modern Good Samaritans deserve a special salute. They included PAUL MORGAN, BILL PRICE, HARRY ROTH, HAROLD FRANKES, DUKE TAYLOR, BOB DAGAN, CARROLL NEWPORT, JIM STEUERWALD, JIM HAYWARD, HOWARD MCGLONE & TOBE BARRETT. Edith wishes to take this opportunity of again thanking them for their kindness." "They're a swell bunch to work with" she says....We want to welcome PHYLLIS JOHNSON to the Order Department. She comes from main office...

HARRY ROTH had to go home the other day due to a "heck of a headache". When the doctor asked him if he worked around anything obnoxious, he immediately said "Why yes, SENATOR KINTZ."

THE WALLS OF JERICO: You've heard of painters painting themselves into a corner; and paperhangers papering their mothers-in-law to the wall, but HARRY KNIGHT and ROY MORRIS were different. In bricking up a boiler, they bricked themselves inside and couldn't get out until they ripped out a hole big enuf for the exit. How those two throw themselves into their work!

TED JEFFERS WELCOMES NEW SON

GEORGE CRAIG and the family motored to the new T.V. tower which pierces the clouds one thousand feet. On top of this is a 100 foot antenna. A Hoosier Empire State. This new tower is located at Cloverdale. When the Craigs stopped for lunch, they missed a blanket from their car. Tsk Tsk. Probably some thieving out-of-towner!

BETTY HUGHES chose the modern way of viewing this terrific tower - via airplane. She spent almost an hour getting a topside view of the Indiana countryside.....

DR. CAMPBELL reports that HENRY NIESCHLAG has joined HERB GROSS and GRANT LAFFERTY in Pharmaceuticals. With this trio and FRED PUGH, no telling what Rx will result. Country dwellers, HAP CHORNOCK and ED MOORE are all smiles when the rain falls. If enough rain comes their wells may fill up. Our

Thread 'Batter'

MAYBE you didn't know it, but our thread lubricant is made in Terre Haute, Ind. by the Commercial Solvents corporation at their Plant Two site.

These pictures show Terre Haute city salesman Ed Ransford visiting the Commercial Solvents plant to see how our lubricant is made.

He learned that the ingredients are mixed in a huge kettle and canned or tubed when the batter is fully prepared and ready for the consumer.

Ed witnessed the entire manufacturing process and understood all but one very important thing—what are its ingredients? That, Ed, is a secret!

Ed Ransford might not know what the ingredients are, but as a salesman, he knows how invaluable the secret "batter" is to pipe fitters.

Prexy Woods spoke on "The Hands That Hold Our Future" before the local Rotary Club on Tuesday, February ninth.

In his speech he paid tribute to the smaller towns. In his answer to the question "Whose are the hands that hold and direct our future?" he said "We know that it is in the Terre Hautes of America that the roots of our political and religious freedom are planted.

"It is in the cities like Terre Haute that we raise our children to be a better generation of Americans. Here are developed the men and women who will defend the heritage we have given them.

"And here are the foundations of the greatest industrial and agricultural economy the world has ever known. By that I mean an economy which has enabled all Americans to enjoy, as a nation, the highest level of health, happiness and general well-being in recorded history....."

SHORT ORGANIZATION MEET OF CSC CHESS CLUB

A short meeting of the CSC Chess Club will be held at seven, Friday evening, Feb. 26th in Research Seminar room. Anyone interested in chess is invited...

LINDA LESLIE WINS TRIP TO TULSA, OKLAHOMA

CSC'S ambitious little blonde bombshell - who is currently keep^{ing} ten projects going for dear old 4-H, has returned from a thrilling trip to Tulsa. LINDA LESLIE was one of the Hoosier young people to be so honored.

Many exciting events were planned for these kids - including a picture and story in the Tulsa Daily News, visits to the Tulsa Daily Equipment office, Douglas Aircraft Company (which is 4/5th of a mile long) the Gilcrease Art Gallery, Mid Continent D.X. Refinery, Philbrook Art Center, Utica Shopping Square, Woolroc Museum, Claremore to see Will Rogers Memorial and the Mason Gun Collection.

A rodeo-ette was planned for them plus a barbecue and square dance. The Indiana students were taken by bus to an Angus Ranch. Since Linda's big black Angus won top honors at the Vigo County Fair one year, this young lady was more than interested in this trip. The ranch contains 2,000 acres and feeds 1,000 cattle. On the fifth day of the trip there was a vegetable judging and banquet.

WITH DEEPEST SYMPATHIES to RAY & HOWARD HIGGINS in the loss of their father; to LLOYD KRUZAN in the death of his father-in-law; to GALE, WARREN & LAWRENCE LISTON whose father died.

BILL FOGEL, JR. Bowls a 297 game. He had eleven strikes in a row and received a sterling silver membership card called the "Eleven-In-A-Row Award."

BOB DAYHUFF HONORED

C.S.C. SOLDIER WINS FREEDOM MEDAL

BOB DAYHUFF, former clerk of Microbi, was one of the forty-one members of the armed forces to be awarded the George Washington gold honor medal for his essay on "What America Means To Me." Since Bob is serving with the Eighth Army in Korea, his award was presented to him with appropriate services there, while the others were receiving awards at the Freedom Foundations Headquarters in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

While we would like to quote the complete text of the prize-winning essay, space does not permit. In his opening paragraph he writes -

"When I boarded a ship at Seattle, Wash., and started my first voyage to a foreign country, I had my first experience and realization of what it would have been like to have been born in a foreign country. A country where a free education and opportunity is greatly limited. A country without freedom of religion, or where religion is based on earthly things rather than God.

"As an American soldier now in Korea, America means to me: Large cities in which to walk the sidewalks along the countless rows of shops and show windows. Super highways in which to move swiftly from city to city, country to town.....America, among her unlimited variety of blessings, has her share of faults. There are people in America who while enjoying the comforts and opportunities of being an American citizen....they strive to overthrow democracy. They would like to have government ownership of our factories, shops, farms and with this, the very souls of each individual as well.....I conclude, America means to me, and to the millions of other Americans; faith to live, hope for the future, and charity for others through the abundance of its riches. With the above man can through the help of God live a long, happy, useful and profitable life and thus be able to say "I Am An American Citizen."

CONGRATULATIONS BOB DAYHUFF! We're mighty, mighty proud of you. Bring your medal with you when you visit the plant. We want to see it. (Editor's note: Bob's address is Pvt. ROBERT G. DAYHUFF, KMAG 8202d AU RTC #2, APO 94, % Postmaster, San Francisco, California.)

She wears three stars for fifteen years of dictating to the dictators. Whatta Gal!

FARM, HOME AND TRAFFIC SAFETY - EARL DRAKE

This old world is a good place to live. Let's help make it safe and stay as long as we can.

Recognize the dangers of your farm, in your home or on the highway, and prevent accidents before they happen.

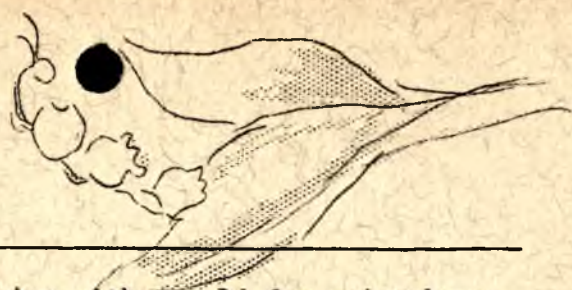

Can you answer "yes" to these questions?

1. Do you always keep steps, porches, and stairways in good repair?
2. Do you always use a SAFE stepladder instead of climbing on a chair?
3. Do you always store gasoline at a safe distance from buildings?
4. Do you always obey traffic signs and signals?
5. Do you always keep your car in the proper traffic lane on hills & curves?

These safe practices will help you and your family live happier and longer.

YOU CAN'T MEASURE A PERSON'S HAPPINESS BY THE AMOUNT OF MONEY HE HAS. A MAN WITH TEN MILLION DOLLARS MAY BE NO HAPPIER THAN THE ONE WHO HAS ONLY NINE MILLION.

THE PIPEFITTERS WONDER WHERE TECH IS GOING IN '55?

BOB JONES GIVES A GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF WHAT GOES WITH THE BOWLING LEAGUE

Holy Shmooooee!! What a bunch of crazy mixed-up bowlers. Nothin' Ball BECK just wouldn't get off our backs. SI said he was willing to sacrifice for low scores - just to see his pupil come thru. BECK did - 600 and the Shop downed them Mighty Giants 2 games! Office and Rascals are either waiting for the rest to catch up or nervous at the switch. Anyways the league is bunched tighter than a cauliflower head just before it's bleached. Them Giants are gonna start makin' their bid next week. I don't think ROYER can fire his group next week - after winning 8 out of the last 9 games. ART PETTY has his foot well. Them pins are falling by fright. G. LISTON gets married, then starts bowlin'. Yeah, Oh them nights out.

Student Manager was afraid he might be called "Student Manager" again so he wouldn't throw a 200 game. Just 199.

BUCKET-BALL JARVIS lost his head and got 558. Process still just won 2. They were given one 907 to 898 by the Rascals, no less. That 661 is in jeopardy. JONES has got it. 711 next week.

Season high total F- KRUZAN 661
Season high over avg. PUGH & LOBB . . 142

I wouldn't make any threats or anything like that but if KUNES bowls against them Giants next week and goes a 125 pins over his average - like he did 2 weeks ago, well, as I say, you better be careful when the EXPANDEX team is chosen for next week. Well, I'd certainly hate to see those fermenter fall apart, ART. Not tryin' to scare you fellows or anything. But, by gosh, after J. CLEMENTS even sent down a pencil - we still couldn't beat shop - something's got to be done!

÷- IT DID HAPPEN HERE ÷-

On April 9 Roy Klaus was cutting a piece of $\frac{1}{4}$ inch steel plate with the machine shop band saw as illustrated in the above photo. Suddenly the saw snapped. Roy doesn't know what hit him, things were just moving too fast. But it appears that a piece of the saw hit the upper edge of one of his goggle lenses, shattering it but sparing his left eye and face from an unknown amount of injury.

Roy has worn his goggles hundreds of times during his 25 years with CSC without an accident occurring. This was the time for which he had been protecting himself.

It is worth noting that the most likely injury in using a band saw is getting dust in one's eyes. Light plastic-type eye protection will protect against dust but would have been of doubtful value in Roy's case. The strength of the goggle frame probably contributed as much protection as the lenses.

REGARDING AETNA HOSPITALIZATION CLAIMS

PLEASE file your claims with Time Office when your dependents or you go to the hospital, instead of waiting until he's out.

We have received a number of hospital bills on which no claims have been filed.

If you will call Time Office or stop in when you know you will have a claim, we could speed up the filing of the claim - and more important - collect your money sooner.

IMPORTANT: If anyone in your family has an accident which might necessitate Xrays or a stitch-job, please take the injured one to the hospital at once. We are able to collect the hospital bill as an Out Patient even though the hospitalization is of short duration.

However, on illness, one must have at least 18 hours hospitalization before we can collect any hospital insurance.

REMEMBER PLEASE, if there are any questions regarding claims, call Ext. 224.

SCOUT TROOP 10 ACTIVITIES - WILLIE SPRING

As part of President Eisenhower's conservation request program, Troop 10 and Explorer crew assisted in the reclamation of eroding land by planting a rather large number of trees and shrubs. This project took place at the Vigo County Conservation Club north of Seelyville. The group was entertained by the club with a fine dinner after the completion of the project.

Both Explorers and Scouts are anticipating a large weekend at Camp Wildwood, May 1st. They intend to work some of the bugs out of their camping techniques. This event is in preparation for the Council Camporee at Isaac Walton where it is whispered they intend to carry off top honors.

A group of 25 people made up of Troop 10 Scouters and their wives participate in the annual Council Appreciation Dinner at the Terre Haute House on May 4th.

FARM

FARM, HOME and TRAFFIC SAFETY - EARL DRAKE

Farming is rated as the most hazardous industry in the United States by the National Safety Council. From past experience they can estimate how many and what kind of fatal farm accidents will occur in any definite period, but unfortunately they can not tell to whom these accidents will occur. Do not let one of them happen on your farm.

Machinery, especially tractors, is the principal cause of farm accidents.

Can you answer "YES" to these questions?

1. Do you always see that the tractor is not in gear before starting the motor?
2. Do you always stop the tractor before dismounting?
3. Do you always keep the guards and shields on the power take-off, drive chains, belts and other moving parts when machinery is being operated?
4. Do you always shut down equipment before adjusting, oiling, greasing, cleaning or repairing?
5. Do you always shut off the motors on cars, trucks, tractors and other power equipment before filling the gasoline tank?
6. Do you always avoid wearing loose-fitting, torn or ragged clothing or gloves around moving machinery?
7. Do you always have proper lights, flags, and signals on equipment when on the highway?
8. Do you always refuse to permit children to ride on the tractor or equipment?

Eternal vigilance is the best way to prevent accidents from happening on your farm.

Now that millions of Americans, of which a small per cent are CSC employees, have taken up the art and sport of fishing, the time of year has come for liars to spin their favorite yarns.

Classified as the No. 1 fisherman is the person who possesses greatest technique, skill and fish for the whole neighborhood.

TWENTY YEAR DINNER PARTY, MAY SIXTH, 1954

A roomful of CSCERS gathered in the Mayflower room of the Terre Haute House on May sixth to welcome into the sacred folds of the Twenty-Year Club five new members. The 1954 crop consisted of LAURENCE BYERS, ROBERT V. BYERS, CLAUDE FOOTE, ROY C. MITCHELL and ROBERT H. TAPY.

A delicious dinner was enjoyed at six-thirty which included the famous Indiana Tom Turkey, relishes, celery dressing and giblet gravy, mushrooms and peas, creamy white potatoes, golden fruit jello, rolls, coffee, ice cream and yellow cake, after-dinner mints and cigars.

The invocation was given by RUSSELL F. HIATT, pastor of the Breden Memorial Church. We want to quote his prayer -

"We turn to Thee, our Heavenly Father, to recognize Thee as the source of every blessing. Help us to be conscious of Thy mercy and Thy goodness. We thank Thee for this Nation with its freedom and its opportunities. We thank Thee for men in industry and business who by their labor help to make a stronger and more prosperous America. May we all strive to live lives of unselfish service that we may retain and perpetuate these blessings. We thank Thee for this food. Bless it to the strengthening of our bodies and bless us in Thy service. In Christ's name we pray. Amen."

HANS FISCHER was Master of Ceremonies; presentation of awards was made by HOMER KIEWEG; speaker of the evening was T.S.Carswell.

Plaques of spring flowers were used on the tables. Programs marked each plate. The Hill sextette played dinner music. Leo Baxter's Band was engaged for the dancing which followed.

We have quoted speeches given by T.S.Carswell, M.C.Wheeler, Homer Kieweg. Following are the comments by HANS FISCHER, the M.C. for the event -

...This, as you will have noticed from the program, is the 13th annual dinner of the Twenty Year Club. We were a little reluctant to see the word, "Thirteenth" appear on that because of the possible implications of it, but just two nights ago in this same room I noticed the annual Boy Scout's Appreciation Dinner program carried the same words "The Thirteenth" so either the Boy Scouts or the Twenty Year Club, one of the two, is in very good company this week. I think both of them are.

This evening there will be not two, as the program says, but three people who will speak to you a few minutes....(Hans introduced members of the speaker's table. See picture page).....I also want to express my personal thanks and of all of us here to the people who have helped make this dinner another splendid event, particularly Miss MARTHA SWANSON and MR. GEORGE HINES.

The real meat of the evening is the special objective of the dinner, the presentation of awards to those new members of our Twenty-Year Club. I can look back now, as sort of an oldster at this sort of thing - and I can see a lot of faces out here who agree with me - that these new members of the 20 Year Club aren't what they used to be when I got in. Be that as it may, the new membership of the club is a group of individuals that we are all proud to welcome. Presentation of awards by HOMER KIEWEG -

HOMER KIEWEG

Mr. Toastmaster, Members of the Twenty-Year Club, and all the fellow workers at the Pickle Works:

Before we get into the business at hand tonight, HANS has asked that I read to you a letter received today:

"For the first time since my association with Solvents, I must miss the Twenty-Year Dinner and party in Terre Haute.

"In the last few days I have decided that a severe head and chest cold is about the worst disease common to man. I've had the king of them all, and I urge our Research staff to find its cure and our fortunes will be made.

"In addition, other matters of compelling necessity require my attention here, so my cold and some very pressing business force this decision to miss the party, and it is with the very keenest regret.

"I do send through you my greetings to all the Solvents family and friends assembled tonight and my special greetings and congratulations to all members of the Twenty Year Club - those who have won their spurs in past years and those who enter its sacred precincts tonight.

"It is a pleasure to report that despite highly competitive markets and some soft areas in volume, our company is making progress. It is my opinion that our organization is improving, that we are pulling together in a more closely knit team and that, if we continue to apply our abilities and our best efforts in our present direction, we are going to continue to grow and merit the confidence of our stockholders and our customers.

"A happy time to you all tonight."

KIEWEG: Now if the candidates for the Twenty-Year Club are ready, we will proceed with the business of the evening.

The first man on the list is LAURENCE BYERS - "BUCK" BYERS to all of you. Buck started working with CSC at the Peoria plant and transferred to Terre Haute in 1935. After looking the plant over carefully he finally went to Research, liked it so well he has stayed there ever since.

I was talking with EARL WRIGHT the other day and he tells me that at one time he had his eye on a hound dog. You know how it is, during hunting season you can't find one but when the season is over, there are quite a few of them running loose. EARL had decided that this particular hound dog shouldn't be let to run loose. It might be run over, or starve.....Feeling sorry for the hound (and knowing that the rabbit season wasn't too far away) Earl decided to pen up the dog. He got BUCK to help him. Together they caught the dog and just as Earl was about to pen it up, BUCK stepped back and said "You know something? That hound dawg belongs to my brother-in-law!" I am very happy to present to you this watch and welcome you into the Twenty-Year Club.

We have two BYERS on our list tonight. They are not brothers but both of them, as you can guess, have been with us for twenty years. BOB began as a research operator and stayed in Research until 1941 when Uncle Sam decided he needed BOB more than we. BOB put on a uniform. Then when he came back in '45 he returned to Research. It wasn't until last year that he decided to try production and moved into the Pharmaceutical Division. I don't know whether he followed TOM CARSWELL or saw that TOM was leaving Research Division - at any rate, BOB, like TOM, is in the production group. Some of the boys at lunch the other day were reminiscing about childhood dreams and wishes, mentioning the ones which had been realized. When it got around to BOB he said that when he was a youngster and his mother combed his hair, he used to wish he didn't have any. That wish has been fulfilled. In addition to giving Bob his watch, some of the boys in Research have here a special comb for BOB. It's the kind you can comb your hair and wash your face with...

Next one on the list is CLAUDE FOOTE. Claude started in the Process Division and has worked in most of the divisions of the Company. In 1945 he transferred to Research. He liked research work. He has been there ever since. For the past nine years CLAUDE has been working down in the Microbi plant. Claude set a new record with Solvents. We have a number of cases where a father and a son are both members of the Twenty-Year Club - I can see the Boroughs sitting here - but in checking over the list, this is the first time where a father and two sons have been made members of the Twenty Year Club.

CLAUDE has tried, according to the boys in the payroll department, to dip into BUTCH NOTTER'S paycheck. Whenever he comes past the pay window he always says "One for Foote and half of NOTTER'S." Butch isn't due for a watch as yet but if he were, Claude would probably try for half of Butch Notter's watch, so we fixed him up. You might be able to use these spare parts in fixing your own watch in case it goes bad. (Kieweg handed him an envelope containing watch parts.)

After ROY MITCHELL graduated from Oklahoma University and got his Master's at M.I.T. he started to work with an Eastern competitor, but in 1934 he saw the error of his ways and joined up with CSC. He started in the shipping department for a short while after which he has served as superintendent of a number of our departments. He is now Superintendent of our Derivatives plant.

ROY is known for his bowling prowess but his strategy in golf is really the thing which calls for the admiration of his fellow golf team leaders. They would like to know what the formula is that Roy uses in putting a team together that is so good as to win at a Bingle Bangle Bungle.

The other day, however, when he was off his game, he remarked about it to the caddy out there. Said he certainly wasn't playing the game he usually played. His caddy said "Yep! I think you ought to go back to checkers again."

Last one on the list is BOB TAPY. Bob, if you deny anything said about you tonight there is a tape recorder here that belongs to GEORGE HINES and we have on that many a conversation which has been recorded in GEORGE'S office.

BOB joined Commercial Solvents in 1934. He is a graduate of Indiana State and was put to work under the tutelage of BUD ACKERMAN. I am sure of his good work in the Process Department. He has probably been responsible for keeping most of us out of the bad graces of that portion of Uncle Sam's Treasury Department which we all know as the A.T.U. (Alcohol Tax Unit.)

BOB has always been active in various plant functions such as the Christmas party, bowling teams - he's been secretary there - Community Chest and various other functions about the plant. The boys tell me that BOB is scared of waters holes when it comes to golfing. He is glad that PERCY MILLER doesn't have the dog that used to be across the road because that dog has been accused - and I'm not sure whether falsely or otherwise - of robbing BOB of a number of golf balls. I think it was just a bad lie that he had on the ball which led him to blame the dog for it. Bob is really a good sport, tho. If you don't believe it, just play golf with him. He'll bet a nickel with you any time at all.

This concludes the presentation of watches to the new members of the Twenty-Year Club. We wish you all many more happy years with this organization.

HANS FISCHER: After taking a broader and better look at the new members and hearing the words that HOMER has to say about them, I have changed my mind a bit. I think they are worthy of joining the ranks of last year's class and those who went before us.

We have prevailed upon MAYNARD WHEELER, with quite a bit of arm twisting, to put an extra line into our program. Altho not a part of the originally intended program, he has consented to say a few words to us.

M.C. WHEELER "Dr. HIATT, Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Razzmaster, honored guests, beautiful ladies and fellow slaves:

When HANS got hold of me this afternoon and asked for a few words I couldn't help but think of an old, old story. When Mark Anthony, unannounced, entered the tent of Cleopatra he said "I didn't come here to make a speech."

I was asked what New York is really like. (Mr. Wheeler then asked all the ladies to arise. After they had done so he told the men in the room - "Men, look around. That is the way a subway looks.")

When I was assigned the new position I now have, I looked around and found that most of my associates, such as HANS FISCHER, TOM WALTON, ECK WHEELER, GEORGE HINES had all come out of Research Department. It took me 31 years to get there.

It is really a pleasure to be here just to say a few words this evening, and particularly to the Twenty Year Club members. The thrill it was to see CLAUDE FOOTE come up here to get his Twenty Year watch. There are very few of us but what are indebted to a great extent to many of the employees who have been with us twenty years or longer.

MR. WHEELER -

Thirty-one years ago I was just a dumb boy out of school and OTTO FOOTE, ED NASH, HERB OTTE, OLD BILL TERRELL, "RED" JEFFERS and a lot of others who are here that I see - and some are gone - took us by the hand and helped us along. And certainly it is with that helping along that most of us have been able to keep going along.

I am happy about the type of assignment that I have because I think I can do a great service to help improve processes, improve products and bring out the new products with the aid and help of you and the Research Engineering and Development boys in order to have bigger plants and better processes where we have them now, and keep on building more plants and a bigger company. May God bless you.

HANS FICCHER next introduced Mr. Carswell as the Speaker of the Evening. (The text of his speech is quoted on the next page.)

DINNER PARTY HIGHLIGHTS

NANCY LEE was again Head Usherette. Assisting her were JUSTINE NEVINS SABLA, MARY O. DONHAM, EVAH KIRKHAM, MARTHA GRAY, SARA KIRTS and HELEN BRASSIE.

ESTILL ROTH fought another bout with the ticket sales and from the way it looks, everyone who wanted them, had tickets.

We missed ANNA GEPNER at the party. In a note from her she writes "In expressing sincere thanks to the Arrangements Committee for the invitation to the Twenty Year Dinner, am really disappointed to have to say it will not be possible for me to attend. This will be the first time I've had to miss.

"I still can't take a step without the walker and can't get a shoe or stocking on as my foot is badly swollen. The doctors said my ankle has healed nicely but it will be some time before I can walk right. Hope I'll be back on my feet by picnic time....I'll be thinking about you on May 6th and wishing I were with you as I know it will be the usual lovely affair...." (By the way the picnic is June 19th so let's get going, Anna)

The J.W. FONCANNONS sent their regrets about the dinner party but they plan to make the trip from Valparaiso for the picnic.....The HARLEY COTTOMS, from Linton, Indiana, were on deck. So were the "SLIM" LEONS from Rosedale. Also many alumni from T.H.

Mr. Master of Ceremonies, Honored Guests, particularly honored members of the Twenty-Year Club, and fellow employees:

I don't know that I want to be called "The Speaker of the Evening" as I feel I am not going to make a speech to you. I just want to talk over things as they are in the Corporation very frankly and off the record. I only wish that the time were longer so that each one of you could ask me any questions that might be in your minds about our position at the present moment, but since that is impossible, I'll try to cover some points which I hope will be of interest to you.

Someone said to me awhile ago that they heard I was going to make an address. I was reminded of the story of the cub reportere who was to cover an eminent senator who came to Terre Haute to make an address. - I am not sure that it was Joe McCarthy, but it was probably somebody equally prominent. - The editor of the Tribune-Star sent his cub reporter over to get the Senator's address. The cub reporter was back in a few minutes. The editor asked "Did you get the address?" the reporter said "Well, sure, you know what it is - The Terre Haute House, 7th and Wabash."

The real reason why I am here tonight, rather than some of my more distinguished associates, is because we formed a new type of organization for this corporation on the eleventh of January. I think you all know in general what that organization is. It consists of two staff divisions. One of these is led by our former head of Production for the whole Corporation, MAYNARD WHEELER. This division comprises Research, Development and General Engineering.

The other staff division is our Administrative Division which combines, under SYDNEY ELLIS, the Controller's Office, the Treasurer's office, Public Relations, Advertising, and other matters of general nature.

There are two operating divisions; our sister division - The Petrochemical Division under the leadership of WARD JACKSON, and our own, which is known as the Biochemical Division, principally because we are concerned with products which are made thru the action of living organisms such as penicillin, riboflavin, dextran, butyl alcohols and B12.

We are all members of this one common team, but I would like to mention, by name, a few of the men who stand at the top of the organization chart. Many of them are well known to you. Upon these men we depend, of course, for the major strategy and the results that will come out of this new organization.

First of all there is HOMER KIEWEG. I learned tonight that he was a pretty good man to present watches, but he does have some other very important functions in the organization. He heads up our whole production scheme both here and at Peoria.

Then we have our two plant managers - HANS FISCHER, who is so well known to you here in Terre Haute, and TOM WALTON, who is equally known to you here, and who does a marvelous job in managing our plant at Peoria. And there is GEORGE HINES, who acts as Production Superintendent here at Terre Haute, whom you also know very well.

In addition to that we have JOHN HASSMER who heads up purchasing for the Division and is located here in Terre Haute; CLYDE ELLIS, who is in charge of personnel; TOM CRAIG, who is doing a fine job of organizing quality control, and HARRY WILSON, who was with me in Research here in Terre Haute for many years, is now with me in New York working as Administrative Assistant and handling all kinds of details.

So much for Production. The other major part of our effort, located in New York, is Sales. We have four sales branches. Some of the men who head them are well known to you and some are not quite so well known.

Starting by rank of age and experience, our very first man is JIM O'LEARY who heads up Animal Nutrition Sales. I don't need to tell you who JIM is. He is one of the hard-hitting, experienced, aggressive salesmen with this Company and I doubt if there is another man in the organization who is more familiar with our field sales organization than JIM O'LEARY. He is doing a marvelous job in pushing, advancing, and increasing the sales of our animal nutrition products.

The next man in terms of experience with the Company is BOB HUTCHINS who heads up potable spirits. As I will explain to you later, we are plagued with pretty tough competition in all these lines. But it so happens that in potable spirits we have had some particularly bad competition in the course of the last few months. I am happy to say that with able help of our Research and Development Department, and the very able thinking and initiative of our production team, we are going to come out of that all right and we are going to resume a dominant part in potable spirits production.

Another member of the sales team is PAUL DE FARKAS, who heads up export. Paul is a European by birth. He speaks five or six foreign languages. He spent a great deal of time in Europe as Sales Representative for Squibb and Company. He is thoroughly familiar with the export field. I don't know any man, who by training and nature better qualified. We look to him to make our export sales increase very appreciably within the next year or two.

The youngest man, in terms of actual youth, and in terms of experience with the Corporation, is DICK WOOD who heads up our Pharmaceutical Sales. DICK WOOD obtained a Doctor's degree in Physical Chemistry from New York University and is a very qualified chemist. However, he chose not to work particularly in the scientific end of chemistry after he left college but preferred the business and sales part of the industry. He has been with our Company now for four or five years, and he took this new job on January eleventh. Due to his technical training, he is able to understand the nature of our pharmaceutical products better, I believe, than any other man we have had in that job. I cannot help but feel that an intimate technical knowledge of the product you sell is indispensable in almost any field but particularly in pharmaceuticals. We have a lot of building up to do in pharmaceuticals and I'm sure we'll do it.

The thing I want to emphasize particularly is that in my scheme of organization - and I'm sure that it is the feeling of everyone in the corporation - there is no dominance in any one particular group. This organization I am talking about tonight is the first in which Sales and Production have been so intimately tied together in one closely integrated group in C.S.C. I believe we will produce very good results.

Again I want to emphasize that in my book all branches of the Corporation are just about equally valuable. There may be certain times when one branch has to assume the leadership or we have to expect a little more of it than we do another. For example, in time of war I think production is probably the most important branch. You know what I mean by that. In war time we need goods. We have to pour out goods to the men on the fighting front. And, therefore, we have to accentuate production. In times of depression or keen competition, Sales become preeminent. At all times, and more especially, when competition is severe, Research is very important. Other Company are going to bring out new products and unless we equal them, match them, and beat them to it, we will not succeed.

Such dominance as that which comes from these purely temporal situations is only short-lived. The point I am trying to make is, we are all one Company, we are all working for one objective and we must all work together as a team, wholeheartedly.

Now I would like to say a few words about the present situation as I see it in both the chemical and pharmaceutical industries, because we are in both of those industries.

Like all members of the Twenty-Year Club, and a great many others of you sitting here, I passed through a period of serious business depression in this country. That was in the early thirties. This, as I remember and look back on it, - and I am only an amateur economist - was a financial depression. You remember the banks closed, there was a shortage of money, interest rates went up, the stock market went crazy. All symptoms were financial symptoms. Actually the country was still expanding rapidly and our own industry was still a rather young industry. Chemical industry in this country was born in World War I. There was very little chemical industry in this country before 1916 or 1917. Consequently, our industry, in 1932 let us say, was only about fifteen years old. And we had a long way to go. I wouldn't want to say that we are in a depression today. We are not. We are in a recession, but it has a different cause. The problem, as I see it today, is largely one of over-expansion in many branches of the chemical and pharmaceutical industries. As a result, we are seeing a type of competition which we have never seen before in the chemical industry in this country; the major symptom is price competition. Prices have been going down rapidly on many products. The outstanding example for us is penicillin. I don't need go into any figures. I came to this Company about eight years ago. Penicillin today is selling for about 1/30th of what it was at that time. That is a tremendous decline. The chemical industry in the past has been very proud that it has been able to take up these declines by what we call technological improvements. That is, we have been able to work out better processes, cheaper processes, and more efficient processes. We have been able to lower our costs year after year, so that in spite of inflation, in spite of other economic stresses, we did not have to increase the price.

Today in many lines, competition is so severe that I don't see any hope for technological improvements to completely make up the difference between selling prices today and as they were several years ago. We simply have to accept the fact that we are going to deal, for a while at least, with a lower profit margin. That means just one thing, and that is that everyone of us is going to have to make the operation that we do the most efficient possible. In a period of economic stress, such as the present when competition is keen, when prices are dropping, when profit margins are decreased, the battle will go to just one person - that is, the most efficient producer. So I urge that every one of us, no matter what our job may be, whether it be manager of production or shipping clerk, to perform, in the most efficient manner, not only in the respect to the cost of the operation but in respect to the quality of the product that goes out. This aspect is of tremendous importance. In a very large sense every one of you are top-notch salesmen for this Corporation. If an inferior product goes out of our plant, has dirt in it, is poorly packed or poorly labeled, it makes a bad impression on our customer, and we are not good salesmen.

It is up to all of us to back up the people who are really out there on the firing line doing the actual selling. If we do that, I am positive that despite lower selling prices and despite reduced profit margins, we will come out all right in the long run.

CHEMICAL PROGRESS WEEK MAY 17-22

Beginning last Monday and continuing through this week, men and women of the Chemical industry will be telling their neighbors in communities throughout the United States how chemistry is contributing to a healthier, happier and more prosperous life.

On the local scene - with C.S.C. we have had the following observance of this week.

GEORGE HINES spoke on "Modern Miracles of Chemistry" before the Paris Rotary Club.

"Chemicals and Jobs" was the subject of FRED DUDLEY'S speech before the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Terre Haute Toastmistress Club will hear a talk tonight on "The Chemical Industry and the Consumer," to be given by Martha Swanson, at the Deming.

"Chemical Progress Week" was the subject used by HANS FISCHER in his talk before the High Twelve yesterday at the Deming Hotel.

A panel composed of Dr. G.W.MCMILLAN, S.G.BANKOFF and M. GOLDMAN discussed the Chemical situation over W.B.O.W. last night at 9:15.

W.T.H.I. saluted Chemical Progress Week at 9:15 Tuesday evening. HANS FISCHER and B.J.Quinn comprised the panel.

REMEMBER: Progress is dependent upon our industrial development. That is the way our past progress has come, and it is the only way our future progress will come.
